DESCRIPTION OF WORK PERFORMED

RE: PATIENT TRANSPORT, CARDIFF 2285

- Shutter door jammed and not operational
- Shutter door cog loose and chain slipping; slats pushing across
- Re-attached chain and cog; unjam door, stuck above and wedged on motor chain block
- Screwed to guides and isolated
- Modified electrical wiring internally of controller so as to operate door

The above works have been carried out in accordance with relevant Australian Standards and Codes of Practice.

RECOMMENDATIONS

- Replace all slats; complete curtain
- Replace guides
- Check and re-align safety beam (see through) – was hit by slats but appears ok
- Re-tension chain and motor – might require one link to be removed; (stretched)
- Electricals inside controller; limits to be placed back on and then black wire for access control
